- You can't claim the EIC for a child who didn't live with you for more than half of the year.
- If your child doesn't have an SSN as defined in the instructions for Form 1040, line 27a, see the instructions.
- If you take the EIC even though you are not eligible, you may not be allowed to take the credit for up to 10 years. See the instructions for details.
- It will take us longer to process your return and issue your refund if you do not fill in all lines that apply for each qualifying child.

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form 8880 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/Form8880.

What's New

Permanent credit for Achieving a Better Life Experience (ABLE) account contributions. P.L. 119-21, commonly known as the One Big Beautiful Bill Act, makes permanent the credit for contributions by a designated beneficiary to their ABLE account. See Pub. 907, Tax Highlights for Persons With Disabilities, for more information about ABLE accounts.

New saver's match for qualified retirement contributions starting with 2027 tax returns filed in 2028. Under the SECURE 2.0 Act of 2022, beginning with 2027 tax returns, the saver's credit will be replaced by a saver's match that will be deposited by the government directly into your retirement account. Starting with 2027 tax returns, Form 8880 will only be used to claim the saver's credit for ABLE account contributions. A new separate form will be used to claim the saver's match.

General Instructions

Purpose of Form

Use Form 8880 to figure the amount, if any, of your retirement savings contributions credit (also known as the saver's credit). The maximum amount of the credit is $1,000 ($2,000 if married filing jointly).

Tip: This credit can be claimed in addition to any IRA deduction claimed on Schedule 1 (Form 1040), line 20.

Who Can Take This Credit

You may be able to take this credit if you, or your spouse if filing jointly, made (a) contributions (other than rollover contributions) to a traditional or Roth IRA; (b) elective deferrals to a 401(k), 403(b), governmental 457(b), SEP, SIMPLE, or the federal Thrift Savings Plan (TSP); (c) voluntary employee contributions to a qualified retirement plan, as defined in section 4974(c) (including the federal TSP); (d) contributions to a 501(c)(18)(D) plan; or (e) contributions, as a designated beneficiary of an ABLE account, to the ABLE account, as defined in section 529A.

However, you can't take the credit if either of the following applies.

- The amount on Form 1040, 1040-SR, or 1040-NR, line 11a, is more than $39,500 ($59,250 if head of household; $79,000 if married filing jointly).
- The person(s) who made the qualified contribution or elective deferral (a) was born after January 1, 2008; (b) is claimed as a dependent on someone else's 2025 tax return; or (c) was a student.

Caution: You'll need to refigure the amount on Form 1040 or 1040-SR, line 11a, if you're claiming any exclusion or deduction for foreign earned income, foreign housing, income from Puerto Rico, or income from American Samoa. See Pub. 590-A for details.

You were a student if during any part of 5 calendar months of 2025 you:

- Were enrolled as a full-time student at a school; or
- Took a full-time, on-farm training course given by a school or a state, county, or local government agency.

A school includes technical, trade, and mechanical schools. It doesn't include on-the-job training courses, correspondence schools, or schools offering courses only through the Internet.

Specific Instructions

Column (b)

Complete column (b) only if you're filing a joint return.

Line 2

Include on line 2 any of the following amounts.

- Elective deferrals (including designated Roth contributions under section 402A, if applicable) to a 401(k), 403(b), governmental 457(b), SEP, SIMPLE, or the federal TSP.
- Voluntary employee contributions to a qualified retirement plan, as defined in section 4974(c) (including the federal TSP).
- Contributions to a 501(c)(18)(D) plan.

These amounts may be shown in box 12 of your Form(s) W-2 for 2025.

Note: Contributions designated under section 414(h)(2) are treated as employer contributions and, as such, they aren't voluntary contributions made by the employee. They don't qualify for the credit and shouldn't be included on line 2.

Line 4

Enter the total amount of distributions you, and your spouse if filing jointly, received after 2022 and before the due date of your 2025 return (including extensions) from any of the following types of plans.

- Traditional or Roth IRAs, or ABLE accounts.
- 401(k), 403(b), governmental 457(b), 501(c)(18)(D), SEP, SIMPLE, or the federal TSP.
- Qualified retirement plans, as defined in section 4974(c).

Don't include any of the following.

- Distributions not taxable as the result of a rollover or a trustee-to-trustee transfer.
  - Distributions that are taxable as the result of an in-plan rollover to your designated Roth account (including matching or nonelective contributions you designate as Roth matching or nonelective contributions that are treated as having been rolled over in an in-plan rollover to your designated Roth account).
  - Distributions from your eligible retirement plan (other than a Roth IRA) rolled over or converted to your Roth IRA (including matching or nonelective contributions to your Roth SIMPLE IRA or Roth SEP IRA you designate as Roth matching or nonelective contributions that are treated as having been rolled over to your Roth SIMPLE IRA or Roth SEP IRA).
  - Loans from a qualified employer plan treated as a distribution.
  - Distributions of excess contributions or deferrals (and income allocable to such contributions or deferrals).
  - Distributions of contributions made to an IRA during a tax year and returned (with any income allocable to such contributions) on or before the due date (including extensions) for that tax year.
  - Distributions of dividends paid on stock held by an employee stock ownership plan under section 404(k).
  - Distributions from a military retirement plan (other than the federal TSP).
  - Distributions from an inherited IRA by a nonspousal beneficiary.
- If you're filing a joint return, include both spouses' amounts in both columns.

Exception. Don't include your spouse's distributions with yours when entering an amount on line 4 if you and your spouse didn't file a joint return for the year the distribution was received.

Example. You received a distribution of $5,000 from a qualified retirement plan in 2025. Your spouse received a distribution of $2,000 from a Roth IRA in 2023. You and your spouse file a joint return in 2025, but didn't file a joint return in 2023. You would include $5,000 in column (a) and $7,000 in column (b).

Line 7

Add the amounts from line 6, columns (a) and (b), and enter the total.

Line 11

Before you complete the following worksheet, figure the amount of any credit for the elderly or the disabled you're claiming on Schedule 3 (Form 1040), line 6d. See Schedule R (Form 1040) to figure the credit.

Credit Limit Worksheet

Part II Name and Address of Person Requesting Part I Information (see instructions)

Name, street address, apt. no., city, state, and ZIP code of person requesting information

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code.

Purpose of form. You must get the information shown in Part I from each person or organization that provides care for your child or other dependent if:

1. You plan to claim a credit for child and dependent care expenses on Form 1040 or 1040-SR, or
2. You receive benefits under your employer's dependent care plan.

If either 1 or 2 above applies, you must show the correct name, address, and taxpayer identification number (TIN) of each care provider on Form 2441, Child and Dependent Care Expenses.

You may use Form W-10 or any of the other sources listed under Due diligence below to get this information from each provider.

Penalty for failure to furnish TIN. TINs are needed to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. Section 6109(a) requires a provider of dependent care services to give to you a valid TIN, even if the provider isn't required to file a return. The IRS uses the TIN to identify the provider and verify the accuracy of the provider's return as well as yours.

A care provider who doesn't give you a correct TIN is subject to a penalty for each failure unless the failure is due to reasonable cause and not willful neglect. This penalty doesn't apply to an organization described in section 501(c)(3). See Tax-exempt dependent care provider, later.

If incorrect information is reported. You won't be allowed the tax credit or the exclusion for employer-provided dependent care benefits if:

- You report an incorrect name, address, or TIN of the provider on your Form 2441; and
- You can't establish, to the IRS upon its request, that you used due diligence in trying to get the required information.

Due diligence. You can show due diligence by getting and keeping in your records any one of the following.

- A Form W-10 properly completed by the provider.
- A copy of the provider's social security card.
- A recently printed letterhead or printed invoice that shows the provider's name, address, and TIN.
- If the provider is your employer's dependent care plan, a copy of the statement provided by your employer under the plan.

- If the provider is your household employee and he or she gave you a properly completed Form W-4, Employee's Withholding Certificate, to have income tax withheld, a copy of that Form W-4.

If your care provider doesn't comply with your request for one of these items, you must still report certain information on your Form 2441. For details, see the Instructions for Form 2441.

Specific Instructions*Part I

The individual or organization providing the care completes this part.

Enter the provider's name, address, and TIN. For individuals and sole proprietors, the TIN is a social security number (SSN). But if the provider is a nonresident or resident alien who doesn't have and isn't eligible to get an SSN, the TIN is an IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). For other entities, it is the employer identification number (EIN). If the provider is exempt from federal income tax as an organization described in section 501(c)(3), see Tax-exempt dependent care provider below.

How to get a TIN. Providers who don't have a TIN should apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local Social Security Administration office. To apply for an ITIN, get Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, from the IRS. To apply for an EIN, get Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, from the IRS.

Note: An ITIN is for tax use only, and may expire under certain conditions. It doesn't entitle the individual to social security benefits or change his or her employment or immigration status under U.S. law. For details, see the Instructions for Form W-7.

Tax-exempt dependent care provider. A provider who is a tax-exempt organization described in section 501(c)(3) and exempt under section 501(a) isn't required to supply its TIN. Instead, the provider must complete the name and address lines and write "tax-exempt" in the space for the TIN. Generally, an exempt 501(c)(3) organization is one organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, testing for public safety, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals.

Part II

Complete this part only if you are leaving the form with the dependent care provider to return to you later.

2025 Schedule IL-E/EITC Illinois Exemption and Earned Income Tax Credit

Attach to your Form IL-1040. ☐ Check if attaching to Amended Form IL-1040-X.

IL Attachment No. 30

Read this information first

Complete this schedule only if you are claiming

- dependents (Step 2) or
- the Illinois Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) (Step 3 and 4) and Child Tax credit (Step 5).

If you qualify for the Illinois EITC and have at least one child that is your dependent and under the age of 12 years old, you qualify for the Illinois Child Tax Credit.

Taxpayers who did not qualify for the federal EITC or qualified for a smaller amount, but did meet federal income guidelines, qualify for the Illinois EITC if the taxpayer is filing

- with an Individual Taxpayer Identification Number (ITIN), or

- without a qualifying child and is at least age 18 or older (including taxpayers over age 65).

The Illinois Expanded EITC Worksheet on Page 3 determines the federal EITC calculation on which the Illinois EITC amount is figured.

Note: The total amount of Illinois EITC and Child Tax Credit may exceed the amount of tax.

Attach: If claiming the Illinois EITC, you must attach a copy of pages 1 and 2 of your federal Form 1040 or 1040-SR to this schedule.

Antes de
comenzar:

- Vea las instrucciones para la línea 27a del Formulario 1040 para asegurarse de que (a) usted puede reclamar el EIC y (b) usted tiene un hijo calificado. Vea también la Publicación 596.
- Asegúrese de que el nombre del hijo en la línea 1 y su número de Seguro Social (SSN) en la línea 2 coincidan con la tarjeta de Seguro Social del hijo. De lo contrario, en el momento en que tramitemos su declaración, podemos reducir su EIC. Si el nombre o SSN del hijo en la tarjeta no es el correcto, llame a la Administración del Seguro Social al 800-772-1213.
- Si tiene un hijo que cumple con los requisitos para ser su hijo calificado para propósitos de reclamar el EIC, pero dicho hijo no tiene un SSN como se define en las instrucciones para la línea 27a del Formulario 1040, vea las instrucciones.

- No puede reclamar el EIC por un hijo que no vivió con usted por más de la mitad del año.
- Si su hijo no tiene un SSN como se define en las instrucciones para la línea 27a del Formulario 1040, vea las instrucciones.
- Si reclama el EIC aunque no reúna los requisitos, es posible que no se le permita tomar el crédito por hasta 10 años. Vea las instrucciones para más detalles.
- Nos tomará más tiempo para tramitar su declaración y enviar su reembolso si no completa todas las líneas que le aplican a cada hijo calificado.
